Architecture Week: “A Celebration of Architecture Education at Howard University” Hosted by the Architecture and Design Student Association March 26-31, 2007

Dear Alumni, Friends, and Corporate Partners:

You are cordially invited to participate and serve as a sponsor of Architecture Week: A Celebration of Architecture Education at Howard University, which is hosted by the Architecture and Design Student Association. These activities will be held March 26-31, 2007 on the campus in Washington, DC. This is a student initiative and we welcome this opportunity to strengthen our relationships with our alumni, friends, building and design professionals and corporate partners.

The Blackburn Center Gallery Lounge will feature an Architecture Exhibition by the students during March 6-30, 2007, which will showcase our creativity, talent and technical expertise to industry professionals, University guests and the DC metropolitan area community.

A donation will help defray the cost of these events and contribute to the future competitions and community service activities sponsored by ADSA. Please complete and return the attached Sponsorship Form. We look forward to your participation and appreciate the myriad of alumni, friends, and industry professionals that continue to support the efforts of the College of Engineering, Architecture and Computer Sciences at Howard University.

Sincerely,

Billy Almon, President

Architecture and Design Student Association
