

A Legacy Renewed
2009 Student Leadership Conference
“Inspiring, Motivating & Developing Leadership for the Global Community”

Saturday, August 29, 2009
Location: Howard University School of Law

With the theme of “Inspiring, Motivating & Developing Leadership for the Global Community” the 2009 Student Leadership Conference is an opportunity for various student groups and organizational leaders to be exposed to a creative selection of educational sessions and workgroups where they will receive and share information necessary for a memorable and outstanding year in student leadership. The educational sessions range from leadership styles and teambuilding to conflict resolution and event planning.

The conference is scheduled for Saturday, August 29, 2009 at the Howard University School of Law from 9:00AM-5:00PM. This year the conference will be open to all emerging, elected, appointed student leaders and organizational advisors.

Registrants must be available to attend all sessions to maximize the impact of the Conference.

Directions for Applicants
