

HU CONSTITUTION DAY AND CITIZENSHIP DAY

Representative Jesse L. Jackson, Jr.
Guest Lecturer
September 20, 2005 @ 12:00 - 1:00 p.m.
Blackburn Center, Reading Lounge

Other Events/Activities

- ❖ Sep 20th at 8:00 am.
Joint Air Force ROTC and Army ROTC honor guards march and salute the flag.
Location: The Upper Quadrangle.
- ❖ Sep 20th @ 1:00 - 3:00 pm.
School of Social Work panel discussion on the Voting Rights Act.
Speakers: Leadership Conference on Civil Rights and Lawyers Committee for Civil Rights Under Law
Location: Blackburn Auditorium

Web Page and Exhibits

- ❖ HU web page listing websites, books, articles, videos. Special feature -- continuous streaming video of the faculty members and students talking about the U.S. Constitution.
- ❖ Moorland-Spingarn Research Center display of original documents and reproductions related to Citizenship Day and the 13th, 14th, and 15th Amendments to the U. S. Constitution.
- ❖ The College of Engineering, Architecture and Computer Sciences exhibit of relevant articles/essays from Howard Engineer Magazine.

Essay Contest/Symposium

- ❖ College of Arts & Sciences' Freshmen Seminar activity will have an essay contest. Topic: "The Constitution and the African American."
Deadline for submissions noon, Sept. 20th. Winners announced Sept. 22nd at 3:00 pm Alain Locke Hall lobby.
- ❖ Sep 21st @ 3:00 – 5:00 pm, Department of Political Science Symposium – "African American Perspective on the Constitution: Past and Future Hope."
Location: Douglass Hall, Room B-21