Constitution Day and Citizenship Day is celebrated each year during Constitution Week in September to honor the Framers of our Constitution, the landmark document that continues to guide our Nation. Howard University has celebrated this event since its implementation in 2005, with special events and videotaped testimonials by faculty and students. Please visit http://www.howard.edu/library/ConstitutionDay/

"The Choice, Your Vote, and the Supreme Court"
A Conversation.

Panel:
Lisa A. Crooms, J.D., Professor of Law, Howard University
Jack White, New York Times
Jannette Dates, Ph.D., Dean, JHJ School of Communications, Howard University, Moderator

The Browsing Room, Founders Library
11:00 am – 12:30 pm