Scholarship Description

IIPP serves to enhance US national security and global competitiveness by promoting excellence, international service, and awareness among a broader, more representative, cross-section of the American citizenry. We prepare a cadre of well-trained, language proficient minority young people to compete in the global marketplace. IIPP helps ensure that those entrusted with the affairs of the United States (foreign as well as domestic) reflect the diversity that defines us as Americans and confronts us as citizens of the global village.

IIPP also provides outreach, recruitment and technical assistance services, as well as offering HBCUs and other minority institutions valuable resources to strengthen their international studies and globalization infrastructures.

IIPP is the premier training program addressing diversity and minority recruitment in global affairs and foreign policy. IIPP is an integrated, 5 year, sequenced international education can training program, which includes:

- Sophomore Summer Policy Institute
- Junior Year Study Abroad
- Junior Summer Policy Institute
- Summer Language Institute
- International Affairs Internships
- Graduate Study in International Affairs
