On March 31, 2015, at the School of Social Work Chief Brian K. Jordan attended a forum on Sexual Assault & Gun Violence on Campuses. This expert panel and community forum took place in honor of Sexual Assault Awareness Month. Those on the panel were from: the Network for Victim Recovery of DC, Brady Center on Gun Violence, Graduate Student Council and the DC Coalition Against Domestic Violence.

On Friday, April 24, from 7:00pm - 8:00pm HU Interpersonal Violence Prevention Program and DPS will hold RAD training for Women only of College Hall North/South, the Quad and the Annex. For more information you can call (202) 238-2382 or go to: www.violenceprevention@howard.edu.

On Tuesday, April 7th, President Barack Obama visited Howard University SIM’s Lab to give a statement about Science Technology. Chief Brian K. Jordan would like to take this opportunity and thank everyone for a job well done. This success could not have been achieved without your support. Every person deployed for this visit was positioned and professional and, as a result the President’s visit was successful and without incident.

A special thanks goes out to our leaders: Inspector Mae Johnson, Deputy Chief Lorraine Kittrell & Deputy Chief Michelle Milam.
Public Safety through Public Services

The Department of Public Safety’s focus is to prevent and reduce crime. There are several approaches and strategies that the department has taken to become much more effective in securing a safe environment for learning and working at Howard University. DPS efforts includes: Prevention Seminars, Workshops, Crime Prevention Kiosk Programs, Rape Aggression and Defense Training, HU Guardian Services, Front Door, Town Hall Meetings, Safety Tips, and more. If you are interested in more information go to DPS website at: www.howard.edu/publicsafety.

DPS SAFETY FIRST BROCHURE

The Safety First Brochure lists strategies as well as resources on campus to assist you should you ever encounter an emergency situation. DPS has taken different approaches and has implemented strategies to effectively inform the community on how to be safe while on campus. This brochure is intended to educate faculty, staff and students and give some safety tips and strategies to aid them to remain safe in this environment. Our goal is not only to prevent and reduce crime, but also to bring about an awareness and to encourage participation in this effort. Report any suspicious behavior or activity you may see on or around campus to the University Police by calling (202) 806-1100. Get your copy today.

DPS CRIME PREVENTION STRATEGY

The Howard University Police Department work to enhance the safety and quality of life for students, faculty, staff, and visitors through effective law enforcement and proactive crime prevention efforts in partnership with the University community.

DPS CRIME STATS 2015

January - March
The 2014 Year-to-date (YTD) crime statistics is 45% above the same time in 2014

UNIVERSITY MAP

NOTEBOOKS FOR SALE

Attention Officers: Please stop by and see Mrs. Brooks if you are interested in purchasing a small or large notebook for taking notes.

“Public Safety through Public Services”