ATTENTION ALL STUDENTS

The Office of Residence Life has a zero tolerance policy concerning students found to be in the possession of, or using, alcohol, weapons and/or illegal drugs.

The presence of alcohol, drugs of any sort, or weapons, in a student’s room constitutes possession for these purposes. Students found to be in possession of or using, alcohol, weapons or illegal drugs will be required to meet with the Department Judiciary Affairs and possibly have to vacate University housing within 48 hours of the violation without the possibility for housing privileges in University housing in the future.

According to Section 1 in the Student Handbook, Students found violating University policies at unauthorized events including alcohol and illegal drug usage on or off campus is subject to District of Columbia/Federal Laws as well as being held accountable in accordance with the University code of conduct.

Please know that the safety and security of all students is our priority and we thank you for your cooperation while we work to ensure the wellbeing of all students living within the residence halls while attending Howard University.
