

Thank you for your interest in Howard University. Each year a remarkable group of students join our diverse body of scholars and begin to enjoy the Howard experience—an intellectually stimulating, culturally awakening, socially empowering journey.

Howard University is a smart choice for your undergraduate career. This is a comprehensive, research-orientated, historically Black, private institution that provides an educational experience of exceptional quality. Howard offers you many opportunities to expand your horizons by studying with a faculty renowned for their scholarly, research achievements, and by sharing your voice, ideas and interests in student, local, national, and international organizations.

Admission to Howard is competitive. We seek applicants who have demonstrated solid academic performance and embodied our core values of excellence, leadership, truth, and we take a holistic approach in the evaluation of each application. Therefore, it is essential that you see this application process as an opportunity to give the admission committee a complete picture of yourself that includes your strengths, weaknesses, experiences and goals.

We welcome your application and urge you to contact us with your questions.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

FIRST TIME IN COLLEGE APPLICANTS:

We consider the applicant's secondary school academic record, standardized college entrance exams (SAT or ACT), leadership in school and community activities, unique talents and skills, and educational objectives. For admission consideration, an applicant should have a well-balanced college preparatory program that includes the following course work:

- 4 units English
- 3 units mathematics
- 2 units social science
- 2 units science (w/ lab)
- 2 units foreign language

TRANSFER APPLICANTS:

Must have earned at least 15 credit hours and earned at least a 2.5 cumulative grade point average (on 4.0 scale) in prior college course work, and must have a grade of C or better in a college level math and English course. School of Business transfer applicants must earn at least 30 credit hours with a 3.0 cumulative grade point average.

FORMER STUDENTS RETURNING:

Must be in good standing for re-admission or receive permission from the Howard University school/college where last enrolled to be re-admitted.

INTERNATIONAL APPLICANTS:

See page 19 for more information.

FINANCIAL AID

The Office of Financial Aid, Scholarships, and Student Employment offers a comprehensive financial aid program that attempts to meet the financial needs of all Howard University students. First time in college students should apply for early action admission to be considered for several available freshman scholarships. All U.S. citizens, eligible non-citizens, and permanent residents must submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) each year. Applicants must list Howard University and its code (001448) as the college they plan to attend. The University’s deadline for priority consideration is February 15th. Non-U.S. citizens on temporary visas are not eligible for federal aid but may be eligible for assistance through the University’s grants, scholarships, or student employment programs. For more information, contact the Office of Financial Aid at 202-806-2820, or finaid@howard.edu.

HOUSING

Freshman students are encouraged to live on campus. Students offered admission to Howard University will receive a housing application, which must be submitted with a $50 non-refundable housing application fee by May 1st. For information, contact the Office of Residence Life, 202-806-6131, or residencelife@howard.edu.

STUDENT STATUS

ENTERING FRESHMAN

A student who has never been admitted to a degree program at Howard University or any other post-secondary institution of higher education (first time in college).

TRANSFER

PROSPECTIVE INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS MUST MEET THE FOLLOWING REQUIREMENTS:

- Have a satisfactory score on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) for applicants from countries in which English is not the official language.
- Show proof of ability to provide financial support to cover expenses for at least one full year. Some financial aid may be available after one year of study. However, enrollment beyond one year does not guarantee scholarships or other sources of financial aid. For additional information, applicants should contact the department in which they plan to pursue their studies.
- Pursue a full course of study (a minimum of 12 credit hours per semester for undergraduate students). Failure to adhere to this requirement (INS regulations F-1 and J-1 visa categories) may jeopardize immigration status.

PROSPECTIVE INTERNATIONAL APPLICANTS MUST PROVIDE THE FOLLOWING ITEMS:

Application for admission.	Admission essay.
Statement of Financial Resources Form and provide supporting financial documentation indicating sources of funds while attending Howard University.	One letter of recommendation from a guidance counselor (page 13)
	One letter of recommendation from a teacher or professor (page 15).
Certified documents—CSC, CXC, GCE, WASC, CGSE—or final secondary school records, university transcripts, mark sheets, and course syllabi or catalogs. All students who have attended a post-secondary institution must have official transcripts evaluated by the World Education Service.	$45 non-refundable admission application fee payable in U.S. dollars by money order, cashier's check, or credit card. (Credit card authorization form enclosed.) Personal checks are not accepted. NOTE: Howard University does not waive application fees.
SAT I or ACT scores—tests are administered at the U.S. Embassy in the home country—for undergraduate applicants. Most college transfer students and holders of GCE “A”-level certificates are not required to submit SAT I or ACT scores. If you are applying to the School of Business and are a holder of a GCE “A”-level certificate, you must take the SAT I or the ACT	Application acknowledgment card page (enclosed in this packet).
Students who score a 1350 or higher on the SAT I are eligible for scholarship consideration at Howard University. Applicants who do not qualify for scholarships must provide documentation that they have the requisite financial resources to cover all expenses associated with attending Howard University.	Students will receive the I-20 immigration form AFTER they have been accepted, paid the $300 enrollment fee, and submitted the Financial Resources Form indicating the ability to pay the cost of attending Howard University.
