

Application for Graduate Study in Education

The University

Howard University is a private institution chartered in 1867 by an Act of Congress as “a university, for the education of youth in the liberal arts and sciences.” Howard University is a comprehensive research university, unique and irreplaceable, defined by its core values, the excellence of all its activities, instruction, research and service, by its enduring commitment to educating youth, African Americans and other people of color in particular, and for leadership and service to our nation and the global community.

Howard University produces a high percentage of African-American professional and scholars. The University offers more than 160 specialized subjects with doctorates available in more than 23 areas.

Admission Requirements for International Students

Undergraduate and/or graduate records that reflect the equivalency of a U.S. four-year baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university. Official transcripts, certificates and/or mark sheets must be sent directly from institutions abroad to the address in accordance with the program of interest. If the documents are not in English, they must be accompanied by official translation. Course syllabi or catalogs may also be required.

Transcripts and admissions documentation must bear the same name that appears on the graduate application for admission. If the names are different, please send a photocopy of your passport or other notarized documentation reflecting your name change.

TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language), required for individuals from non-English speaking countries. Official TOEFL scores must be sent directly from ETS. The Graduate School does not endorse a cutoff score; however a minimum score of 550 is encouraged on the paper-based exam and 213 on the computer-based exam.

Certificate of Eligibility (I-20) – International applicants requesting an I-20 will be issued after the student is admitted to the University, has paid the necessary $300 Enrollment Fee, and has submitted the Statement of Financial Resources Form with the correct amount of funds, signed by the sponsor(s).

Readmission Procedures

All students who are absent from or not registered at the University for one semester (Summer Session not included) are referred to as Former Students Returning (FSR) and must apply in advance for readmission by submitting the Application for Graduate Study 60 days prior to the date of registration. The application fee is not required for Former Students Returning.
