GENERAL AWARD AND APPLICATION INFORMATION

Most students in the School of Education receive some form of financial aid, either through the School of Education or through the Financial Aid Office. The School of Education provides need and merit based scholarships and assistantships to qualified students.

SCHOLARSHIPS***

Scholarships are awards based on academic merit and financial need. Graduate students must have been enrolled at Howard for at least TWO semesters prior to the award. Undergraduate students must have been enrolled at least TWO semesters prior to the award. Applicants must be in a School of Education program and enrolled in a minimum of 12 undergraduate hours or 9 graduate hours. In some instances, entering students may qualify for scholarships.

Grace Hawkins-Briggs Endowed Scholarship	Up to $2500 per academic year
Hattie M. Strong Endowed Scholarship	Up to $5000 per academic year
Lillian Ruth Dabney Endowed Scholarship	Up to $5000 per academic year (need-based)
