

What's HUP?

The Home Use Program (HUP) is a benefit of Microsoft's Volume Licensing programs. This cost-effective educational tool offers licensed employees:

- access to a copy of either Microsoft Office Professional Plus 2013 or Office 2011 for Mac – not both
- other applications to install and use on a home computer or laptop

Which products are available through HUP?

- Office Professional Plus 2013
- Office 2011 for Mac
- Office Language Pack 2013
- Visio Professional 2013
- Project Standard 2013

How does the company benefit from HUP?

How much does it cost?

- $9.95* (SKU license/download)
  - Office Professional Plus 2013
  - Office 2011 for Mac
  - Language Packs 2013
  - *Visio Premium 2013***
  - *Project Professional 2013***
- $13.99* (back-up media)

**US pricing (local currency pricing available)*

\*if eligible*

FAQs

Home Use Program

Where can I find terms for the program?

- From your Benefit Administrator
- Link on the home page of the HUP website
- Link on the Order Confirmation page during the purchase process

Will my IT department support me at home?

Microsoft provides free 90-day software support (from activation) for employees.

What Office product can employees purchase??

If you previously purchased Office 2007 or Office 2010 from the HUP Program you may purchase Office 2013. If you previously purchased Office for Mac 2011 you must wait until a new Mac version is released before you are eligible to purchase again.

Why can't I have both Office 2013 and Office 2011 for Mac?

The policy is one license per employee per their selected product version (Windows or Mac but not both).